

TSI Seminar

A New Decade in Steel Prices

February 11 2010 - Chicago - 09:00- 3:30pm

The Steel Index is pleased to announce a new type of seminar which takes a fresh look at steel pricing. The past decade flipped steel pricing on its head and we invite you to not only reflect on the impact that this has had on the steel industry, but also to hear what the experts anticipate the next decade will bring.

Join us on February 11, 2010 at the Doubletree Hotel, Chicago for a 3/4 day seminar where you will have the opportunity to challenge our speakers in the discussion sessions. You will also have ample time to network with your industry colleagues during the coffee and lunch breaks.
